PETITIONING THE COURT☒ The issuance of a warrant☐ The issuance of a summons

The probation officer believes that the offender has violated the following condition(s) of supervision:

Violation NumberNature of Noncompliance

1. Mandatory Condition No. 1: The defendant shall not commit another federal, state, or local crime.

Mandatory Condition No. 3: In supervised release cases only, the defendant must report to the probation office in the district in which the defendant is released within 72 hours of release from custody of the Bureau of Prisons.

Mandatory Condition No. 4: If convicted of a felony, the defendant shall not possess a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or any other dangerous weapon.

On March 26, 2015, Juan Jose Dominguez-De La Parra was released from the custody of the Federal Bureau of Prisons to the custody of the Bureau of Immigration and Customs Enforcement. On the same date, he was transferred to the custody of the San Francisco County Sheriff's Department for a then-pending charge of Transport/Sale of Controlled Substance, which originated on October 26, 1995. On March 27, 2015, the Transport/Sale of Controlled Substance was dismissed. On April 15, 2015, the defendant was released from the San Francisco County Sheriff's Department, rather than transferred back into the custody of the Bureau of Immigration and Customs Enforcement; therefore, he was not deported. The defendant failed to report to the U.S. Probation Office within 72 hours of his release on April 15, 2015.

According to an automated criminal history report and contact with the San Francisco Police Department, on July 2, 2015, Juan Jose Dominguez-De La Parra was arrested by the San Francisco Police Department in San Francisco, California, for Murder. According to national media reports, on July 1, 2015, the defendant allegedly shot and killed [REDACTED], a 32 year old female, with a firearm. The charge is currently pending in the San Francisco County Superior Court. In preparing this petition, requests for records were submitted to the San Francisco Police Department and San Francisco County Superior Court. No response had been received at the time of this petition's completion.
